

The College of Wooster provides the opportunity for local residents to audit one course each semester at no cost. The purpose of this program is to provide the opportunity for the continued growth and development of community members, strengthen the relationship between the community and the College, and enrich the learning environment at the College.

To be eligible to audit classes an individual must:

1. Complete a brief application;
2. Be accepted as an auditor by the Registrar at the College; and
3. Approval is required from the Dean for Curriculum and Academic Engagement and the Dean of Students.

To enroll as an auditor in a specific course:

1. There must be room in the class after all current students have registered;
2. The professor's continued approval is required; and
3. The Dean for Curriculum and Academic Engagement and the Dean of Students continued approval is required.

The costs of all materials and textbooks are the responsibility of the auditor. No college credit will be awarded for audited courses.

Individuals are responsible for knowing and abiding by all policies and procedures outlined in the College of Wooster Catalogue, the Code of Social Responsibility, and in The Scot's Key.
