

English Language Learning Program

The English Language Learning Program (ELLP) assists students with English language needs in succeeding academically, professionally, and socially at The College of Wooster. Support is offered through the following programs:

英语语言学习课程将会全面帮助有英语语言学习需求的学生适应美国大学的文化和生活，并具备学术级别英语的能力。以下是具体课程和项目的简介。

English Engagement Seminar (EES)

Prior to the start of Fall Orientation, the intensive, twelve-day English Engagement Seminar (EES) is offered for incoming international students. Students practice oral and communicative fluency as well as academic reading and writing skills, preparing them to successfully complete their first semester at the College. The EES also includes several social events and local excursions. Participants in the EES earn a half-credit and are also able to receive their freshman housing assignments ahead of time to begin settling in to their new home!

To find out more about this program, contact Reon Sines-Sheaff (Admissions) or Carla Reyes (English Language Learning).

在入学前，新一届的国际学生有机会参与为期十二天的强化英语衔接。学生们在帮助下集中训练口语交流能力，以及学术阅读和写作能力，来顺利应对第一学期的课程。学生也有机会参与各种社交活动和短途旅行。参与此项目的学生可以得到 0.5 的学分，同时也可以提前入住宿舍，安顿新居。

Global Engagement Seminar (GES)

Utilizing writing skills learned in the English Engagement Seminar, GES is a class for both international and American students. Students will discuss “hot topics” in American culture and explore themes from global perspectives.

GES 的课堂会由国际学生和美国学生组成，并继续强化写作能力。学生们会讨论美国文化中的热门话题以及从全球的视角探讨问题。

ELL Writing Studio and ELL Writing Studio II

This 0.25 credit workshop-style course is offered in the fall. Students learn the conventions of the English academic writing style and focus on refining rhetorical organization and persuasiveness, as well as mechanical correctness. Writing Studio is designed to correlate with First Year Seminar and other fall courses, so that students use and improve the writing assignments they are already doing during Studio class time.

ELL Writing Studio II, offered in the spring semester, builds on the writing foundations covered in the fall class with an added focus on style and accuracy. It is also a workshop course worth a quarter-credit, and students have the opportunity to use and improve upon spring semester writing assignments in the Studio classroom.

写作工作室会在秋季学期开放，并提供 0.25 的学分。学生们会接触到不同形式的学术英语的写作方式，并强化修辞技巧，说服力，和纠错能力。工作室会与 FYS 和其他课程结合，让学生在完成日常作业的同时提高写作技巧。

写作工作室第二期会在春季学期开放，目的在第一学期的基础上添加写作风格和准确性。和秋季学期一样，学生们可以利用此时间完成作业并得到 0.25 的学分。

Peer Mentor Pairing

Imagine having that one, experienced student who you can ask any question of! Students in the ELLP are paired with experienced students in the fall semester who are available for students to consult with on any issue, from how to do well in a particular professor's course to the best places to eat off of campus! Trained ELL peer tutors are available in the evenings and on weekends for students to come for extra assistance with course assignments or general language improvement.

试想一下有一位经验丰富的学生在你身边，你可以请教他/她任何问题！参与 ELLP 的学生们在秋季学期都会配有经验丰富的学生顾问，学生可以向他们请教任何问题。他们会告诉你怎样在某位教授的课上获得好成绩，还会跟你分享学校外面的好餐馆。学生顾问们会在晚上和周末时间为你的课堂作业或语言问题提供额外的帮助。

English Cafe

Once a week, both ELL students and other students on campus get together for an afternoon of sharing games and English conversation. Students love the laid-back atmosphere and opportunity to practice speaking. This is a great way to make friends on campus.

英语咖啡厅

每周的一个下午，ELL 学生和其他学生会聚在一起玩游戏并做一些英语的对话。学生们都非常喜欢期间轻松的气氛，而且还有机会和大家一起练习口语。这也是在校园里认识朋友的一个好机会。
