CLASS OF 2020

See also: CORONAVIRUS

Note: Because of the CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC, the campus switched over to remote learning in March 2020 and most students left the campus. As a result, the Class of 2020 did not celebrate the I.S. Monday parade, the Senior Research Symposium, nor the usual senior activities in the spring. The campus held some virtual events, including symposium and commencement. May 22, 2022 several members of the Class of 2020 returned to campus to celebrate an in-person commencement ceremony.

Note: Because of the CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC, the campus switched over to remote learning in March 2020 and most students left the campus. The campus opened Fall 2020 with a brief period of remote learning to allow on-campus students to be tested after arrival. Then the campus allowed for both remote and in-person learning until Fall Break when the number of positive COVID cases on campus forced the campus to go remote through the end of Fall 2020. The campus reopened for Spring 2021 with both remote and in-person learning throughout the semester. As a result of the pandemic, the Class of 2021 only celebrated a limited in-person I.S. Monday parade. The Senior Research Symposium and many of the other usual senior activities were held as virtual events. The class did have a limited outdoor commencement ceremony with live-streaming for those who did not feel comfortable attending the event in-person.

The campus reopened for Spring 2021 with both remote and in-person learning throughout the semester. The Class of 2022 celebrated an in-person I.S. Monday parade and a scaled-down in-person Senior Research Symposium. Many of the other usual senior activities were held in-person with some COVID restrictions. The class did have an outdoor commencement ceremony in the stadium with live-streaming for those who did not feel comfortable attending the event in-person.
