

Add Women and Stir: The Effect of Female Mentorship on Women's Law School Experiences

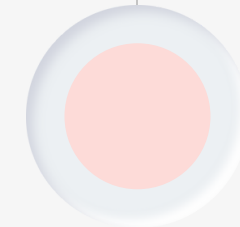

Riley Smith | April 29, 2022

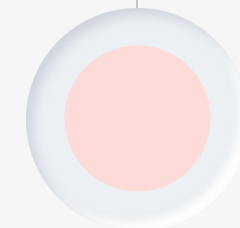

Literature Review

Women in Law School

Female Mentorship

Women's Political Ambition

Women in Law School

Attitudinal
Difference

Professor
Relationships

Class
Participation

Academic Achievement

Alienation

Confidence

Female Mentorship

Possibly Helpful

Possibly Not Helpful

Political Ambition

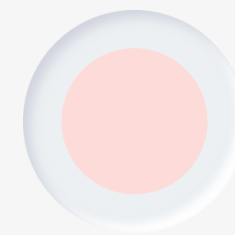

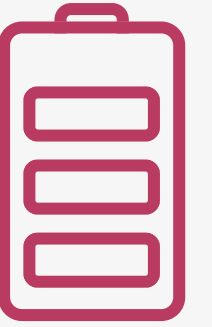

Pipeline Problem

Legislative Ambition

Judicial Ambition

Methods

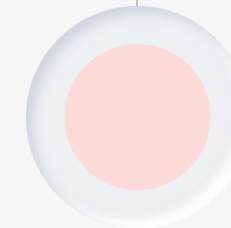

Survey

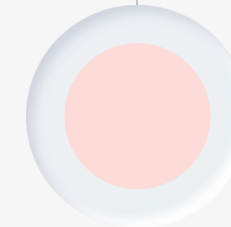

Interviews

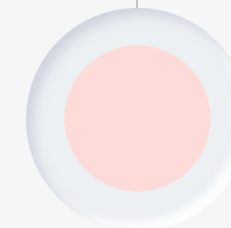

Results

Quantitative Results

Qualitative Results

Implications

Quantitative: Comparison to Past

Public Service
Interest

25% → 8%

20.9% → 13.8%

Unsatisfied
with Grades

Majority

27.7%

Less
Confident

40%

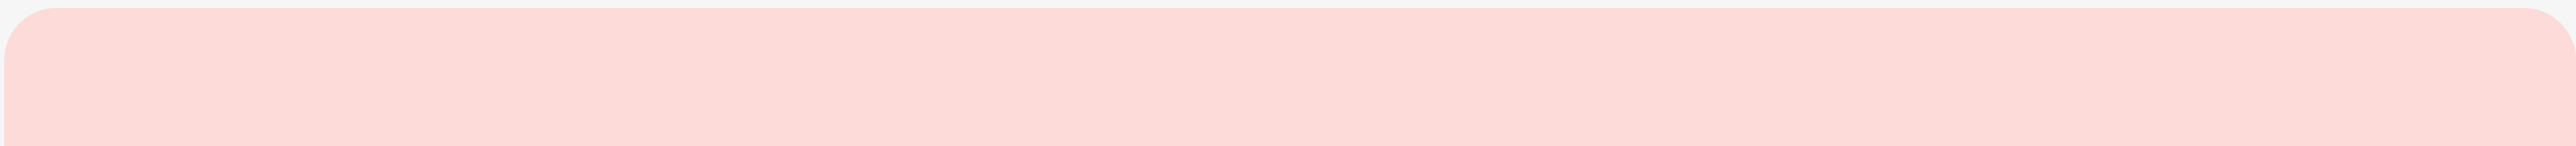

46.8%

Quantitative: Unexpected Results

Alienation

Confidence

Qualitative

"You can't do anything without someone to guide you"

Qualitative: Mentorship Sources

Formal
Mentors

Female
Professors

Classmates

Student Organizations

Coworkers

Thank you!